

A close-up photograph of a wall constructed from irregular, yellowish-brown stone blocks. The wall has a curved, dome-like shape. A white rectangular plaque is mounted on the wall, secured by four small metal fasteners. The plaque contains text in a serif font. Small green plants are growing from the crevices between the stones.

TORRE ARAGONESE
SEC. XV

